

Introduction to Foundations of Development (2 hours)

This course provides participants with a brief overview of the inter-connectedness of sensory processing-regulation-relationship by examining shared neurology and impacts on developmental trajectories.

Learning Objectives:

- Define sensory processing, regulation and relationship using a clinical lens
- Recognize the impacts of shared neurology of these three foundations of development
- Identify the role of each foundation in early development and implications on developmental trajectory